

12th International Conference on
Sri Lanka Studies

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Theme: "Sri Lanka after the War: Prevention of recurrence, reaching for prosperity"

Dates: 18th - 20th March 2010

Venue: Colombo, Sri Lanka

Organized jointly by:

Royal Asiatic Society of Sri Lanka and the Open University of Sri Lanka

International Conference on Sri Lanka Studies (ICSLS) is a bi-annual meeting of scholars researching on historical, socio-economic, cultural, and political aspects of Sri Lanka. After its humble beginnings at Sussex, the UK in 1987, the ICSLS was held in venues across the globe. The Conference continued its scholarly spirit and tradition and has now grown into a major academic event. 10th ICSLS held at the University of Kelaniya marked the largest social science conference held in Sri Lanka with participation of about 250 scholars. The most recent conference was held at the University of Portsmouth in England in November 2007.

Scholars are invited to contribute by submitting papers. In addition to the main theme individual papers are also invited on a broad variety of disciplines such as; anthropology, archeology, architecture, culture and society, defense studies, demography, development studies, diasporic studies, distance learning; economics, education, ethnic studies, environmental studies, fine arts, gender studies, geography, history, information science, languages and literature studies, library and information studies; management studies, media studies, philosophy, political science, post-tsunami studies, psychology, religious studies, risk studies, science and technology policy; and sociology.
